Coaching Parents to Form Their Own Children

Presented by Our Parish Renewed and your Diocese: A Partnership that works for you!

www.msjcenter.org

If the parents aren't involved, the child's faith will always be lukewarm

The task of passing on the faith to children belongs undeniably to their parents. In fact, no matter how hard we try at the parish to substitute ourselves for them, if the parents aren't involved, the child's faith will always be lukewarm.

In this workshop, we'll learn how to engage the parents by coaching them to form their own children. This process can be implemented in various ways, including Sacrament Prep, with your textbook series, or even for Confirmation Preparation.

Parents become engaged with parish life and faith

And their children receive formation that lasts a lifetime! You'll add this method to your entire parish Religious Education or Catholic School program, to make a difference in the lives of parents and their children.

Leisa Anslinger will introduce us to the principles as well as the nuts and bolts of succeeding in coaching parents to form their own children. Participants will receive excellent free links to online support and follow-up.

Leisa Anslinger holds Masters Degrees from Purdue University and the Athenaeum of Ohio. She served as a parish leader of faith formation for many years and now serves as Director of Catholic Life and Faith. In this capacity, Leisa continues her work of developing ways to re-engage Catholics with their faith and their parish. A frequent presenter at conferences and in-service days, Leisa speaks on topics of catechesis, pastoral leadership, and stewardship.

She contributes regularly to ministerial publications and is the author of Here Comes Everybody! And co-author of Desires of the Heart and Forming Generous Hearts: Stewardship Planning for Lifelong Faith Formation.

Her most recent work with Growing Up Catholic: Sacramental Formation that Lasts a Lifetime is available from GrowingUpCatholic.com. It is a sacramental prep process in which we coach parents to form their own children, in the context of a parish event. (Y es disponible en español también).
