

COME, FOLLOW ME

Proclaiming the Word as Disciples of Jesus

“Come follow Me” is the invitation Jesus gives to each of us. How do we live out this challenge to be a disciple? Each account of the Gospel outlines a slightly different way to live out our discipleship, our spirituality. Through reading and listening attentively to the word of God proclaimed in the Gospel, we will identify the main themes of discipleship to help discover which spirituality most fits into your life today.

What: Annual Fall Retreat

Who: Everyone (especially DREs, youth ministers, principals, catechists, Catholic school teachers, RCIA teams, and parish committee members) is invited who wants to deepen their faith.

Presenter: Ron Lamping is currently the sales representative for RCL Benziger serving in parts of Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky. Ron worked on the Faith First religion series and several other projects as a senior editor in the home office of RCL Benziger, in Allen, TX. Previously, Ron taught junior high and was also a DRE in Cincinnati, OH. He holds a master's degree in religious education from Fordham University, Bronx, NY and a M.Ed. in secondary education from Xavier University in Cincinnati.

When: August 21, 2010

Registration	9:30
Retreat	10:00
Lunch (provided)	12:00
Closing	4:00
Mass	4:30

(Bishop Medley will celebrate with those who wish to stay.)

Where: Gasper River Catholic Youth Camp and Retreat Center: (This is the diocesan camp and driving directions can be found on their website:)

<http://www.gasperriverretreatcenter.org/>

Cost: $10 (includes lunch)

Why: This retreat will fulfill the yearly spiritual formation piece required for catechist and youth ministry certification. It is also a wonderful opportunity to take time out from the busy, hectic life we lead and spend it with God and others who are also developing a relationship with God.

Note: During this retreat, we will spend time praying and reading each of the four accounts of the Gospel, and so we ask all participants to bring their Bible or the New Testament.
